

CIVIL WAR

GALLERY WALK

Causes of the War

Southern States: Slavery

Slave Trade

Southern States: Harvesting Tobacco

Plantations of the South

Southern Plantations grew tobacco & cotton.
Large numbers of slaves were needed to supply cheap labor and work the large plantations.

Salve Quarters

Library of Congress Public Domain

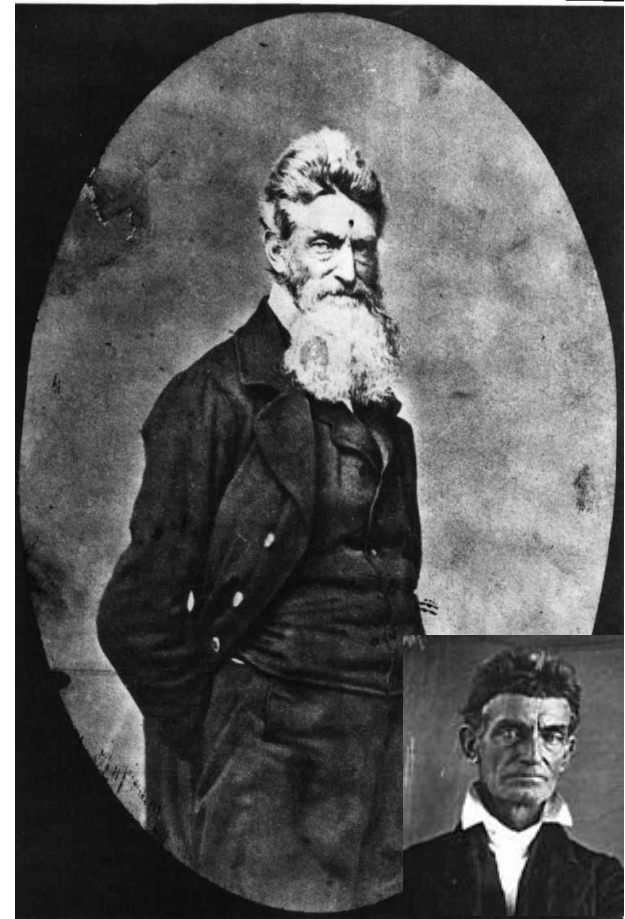

3

African Americans on a plantation, So. Carolina, 1862
T.H. O' Sullivan. Public Domain.

Harriet Beecher Stowe wrote the book, Uncle Tom' s Cabin, which created a great deal of controversy about slavery. She was an abolitionist.

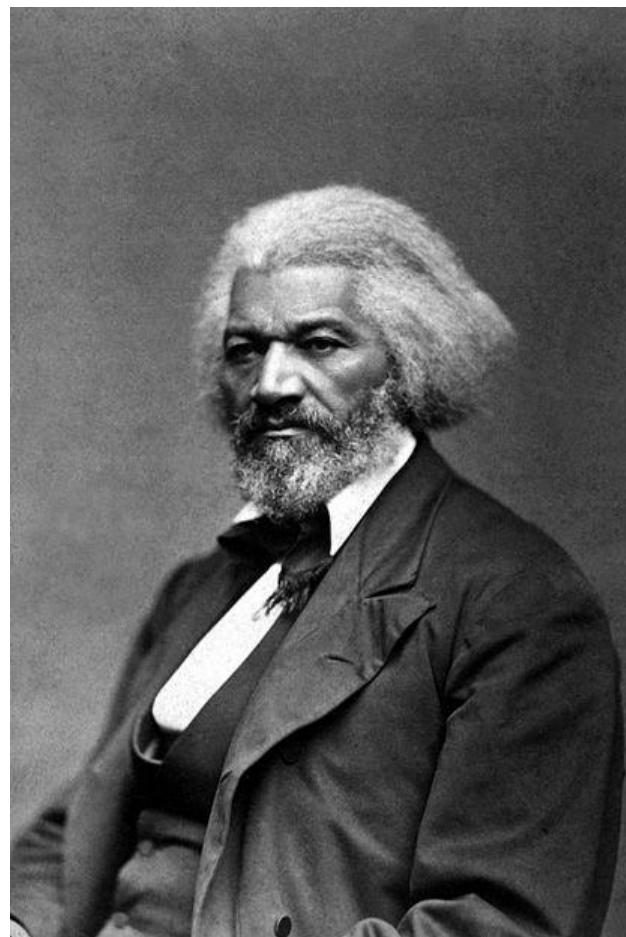

John Brown, an abolitionist, was executed due to his raid on Harper' s Ferry. Brown attempted to start an armed slave revolt with his attack on Harper' s Ferry, a United States Arsenal (weapons).

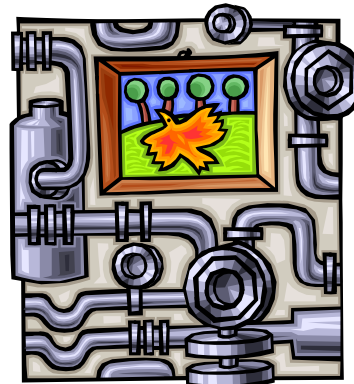

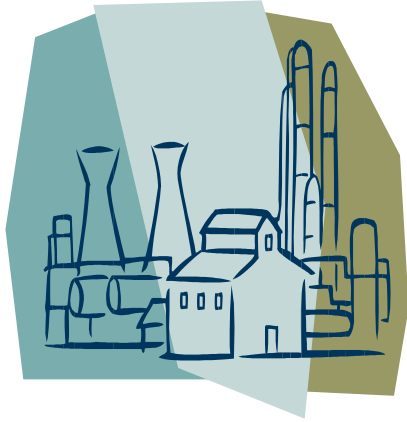

Harriet Tubman created the Underground Railroad to secretly transport hundreds of slaves to freedom.

4a

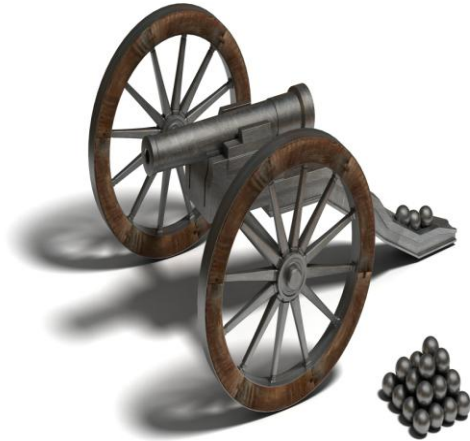

Frederick Douglass, famous orator (speaker) and ex-slave; greatly fueled the abolitionist movement with his speeches.

Northern States: Industry was Most Important

Northern States Manufacturing

Cannon Factories

Imports

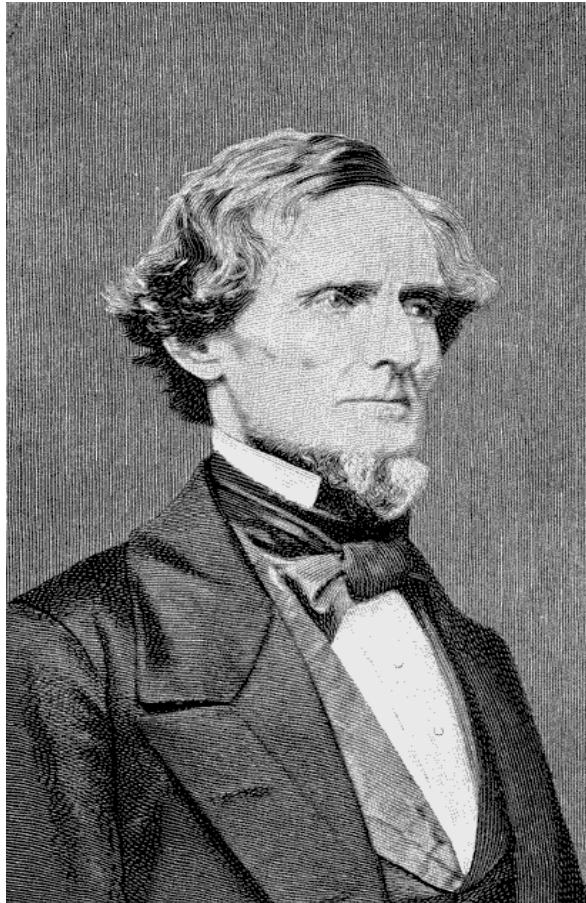

Ship Building

Shipping Industry

Southern States: States Rights! Over the Rights of the Union!

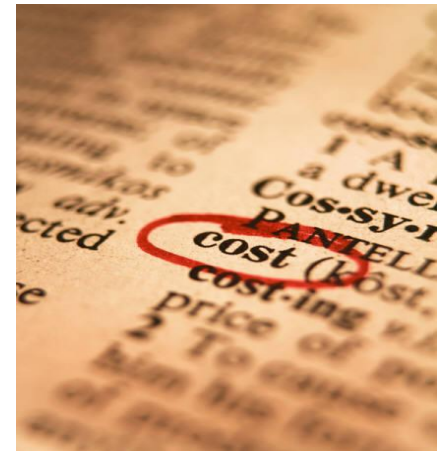

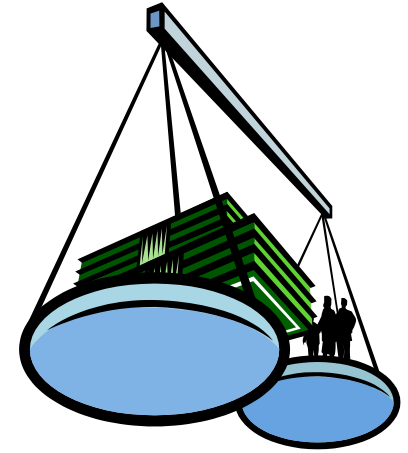

Jefferson Davis, President of Confederate States
In the south; Public Domain. etc.usf.edu/clipart

General Robert E. Lee

Southern States Unfair Tariffs

(fees for goods brought into the country)

The Election of President Abraham Lincoln

Wikipedia-Public
Domain

